

Pretend and Play - Story Time

This class takes your child's imagination on an exciting adventure through classic story books. We'll play games, sing silly songs, explore through visual arts, and become the characters in our books through role-play! Classes are kept new and exciting and are designed to be repeated as your little performer grows.

Each week features a different classic children's story that the whole class will center on. This 10-week class will include stories such as If You Give A Mouse A Cookie, Goodnight Moon, and The Very Hungry Caterpillar.

Classes are 30 mins long and will include craft time, songs, story time, acting activities and games.

At the end of the 10-week session, students will showcase what they've learned for family and friends.
